

TIGER REFUSES TO QUIT BELLIGERENT ATTITUDE IN U. S.

Urged By Friends To Change Methods, Clemenceau Firmly Declines Advice

Former War Premier Declares He Is An Old Man And Must 'Go His Own Way'

(By the United Press)
EN ROUTE WITH CLEMENCEAU, Nov. 27.—Georges Clemenceau, en route to Chicago to continue his battle to win America's heart and soul for France declared to-day he was an old man with one foot in the grave and had no time for compromise.

Urged To Change
Advised in telegrams and letters from numerous influential friends of France in this country that the tenor of his speech and interviews was giving offense needlessly, and was inexpedient, the Tiger bridled up and growled that he would never pull his punches.

"All my life I have been a fighter. Now, I am an old man with one foot in the grave. I came here in the last years of my life with a mission. It is inside of me. I intend to deliver it. Expediency has no part in my scheme of things," he said.

Colonel House was one of the most prominent advisers to be rebuked by the Tiger. Clemenceau from many parts of the country urged a policy of conciliation to conform to American public opinion. Clemenceau waved aside such suggestions with a shrug.

"I am sorry if I give offense," he said, "but I certainly can not change my ways at this time of life. I can not say other than I have come to say. It is my way."

Friends, headed by Colonel House, who conferred with him in New York yesterday, explained to the veteran statesman how a mission of winning sympathy for France could be accomplished with less stirring up of senatorial antagonisms. Clemenceau patted them on the back, said in turn:

"Must Act In Own Way
"That is very fine mission for you," he said. "I must carry out my own way." Clemenceau, as he talked, wagged his brilliant, snowy brows up and down and warned to his subject that there could be no compromise of expediency. He came here to tell the truth. (Continued on Page Two)

WEDDING BEFORE DAWN REUNITES DIVORCED PAIR

County Deputy And Judge Are Roused From Sleep To Tie Knot

An unusual affair of hearts and hands got a justice of the peace and a deputy county clerk out of bed before daylight yesterday morning and resulted in a before-breakfast wedding.

George Edwin Hart, 40, of 325 Thelma Street, this city, married Nellie Ellis Hart, 40, of Los Angeles for the second time at a very early hour yesterday, thanks to the kindness of Justice of Peace G. W. Smith and L. H. Bendorick, a deputy in the county clerk's office.

The wedding was held for the first time on February 20, 1906, in Los Angeles. They lived together until May 1, 1913, when they separated. Some months ago the husband brought suit for divorce on grounds of desertion. The wife defaulted the case and the divorce was granted.

Early morning Hart appeared at the county clerk's office and told Clerk Bendorick that his former wife had agreed to marry him and was coming to Fresno for that purpose from her home in Los Angeles. Hart wanted to get the marriage license in advance so that all the preparations for the wedding could be completed before the arrival of Mrs. Hart. Hart was informed that both parties would have to be present at the time the license was issued and he went away disappointed.

Soon after morning at 4:15 o'clock (Continued on Page Two)

Two Bodies Meet Seeking Means To Cope With I. W. W.

Citizens' League And Valley Industrial Association Plan Steps To Combat Menace In Fresno; Sheriff And Police Are Called Into Conference

TWO MEETINGS of civic and industrial bodies are being held to-day to decide ways and means of coping with what is considered a local I. W. W. menace.

The directors of the Valley Industrial Association met at noon to-day in the Commercial Club to investigate reports of I. W. W. activities and decide upon methods for combating the organization. The executive committee of the Citizens' League is meeting in the office of George Cosgrave, chairman, to learn whether local peace officers are capable of handling the situation.

George Cosgrave, speaking for the Citizens' League, stated to-day that Frank Truitt, chief of police, and Sheriff W. J. Jones were invited to the meeting to tell the committee whether their present force was sufficient to handle the I. W. W. problem.

J. W. Hunt, manager of the Valley Industrial Association, said this morning:

"It is full time to take drastic measures to cope with the I. W. W. menace. It is full time to take drastic measures to cope with the I. W. W. menace. It is full time to take drastic measures to cope with the I. W. W. menace."

TIERNAN JILTS HIS MAIL ORDER BRIDE RETURNS TO FIRST

Claims Woman Deceived Him By Not Telling Of Other Marriage

(By the United Press)
SOUTH BEND (Ind.), Nov. 27.—Professor John P. Tiernan jilted his "mail order bride" to-day and went back to his first legal wife, Augusta Tiernan.

Tiernan's second wife, Mrs. Blanche Ertmer of Arcadia, Iowa, whose marriage to the professor was declared illegal nine hours after they were wedded in Crown Point, Saturday, returned to her home in Iowa, admittedly disillusioned.

The professor, who wooed and won his second wife and married her two hours after divorcing his first wife by correspondence, forsook the widow for his first love when he learned she had been the central figure of at least two former marriages and divorce entanglements.

Deception Claimed
"That woman deceived me," Tiernan said. "She told me Ertmer was dead and I understood he still lived. I hear also she has another husband in Pennsylvania."

Tiernan admitted, however, that the lightning action of wife number one in securing nullification of their divorce and her own desire for reconciliation played no small part in bringing about their reunion.

The Tiernans in their little home were prepared to start life all over again.

Mrs. Tiernan, who accused Harry Paulin, local haberdasher, of the role of her baby in a recent sensational legal suit here, made no effort to conceal her jealousy of "wife number two."

"You left me for that other woman," she screamed at her husband. "How could you? You used to fling those letters in my face, you told me you loved me, you told me I never thought you would marry her. That woman—I hate her," she sobbed.

Will Practice Law
Tiernan, cold, speculative, regarded it all as an interesting case. Professor of law, he laid plans for opening up a practice in Chicago, specializing on what he termed "family cases."

"I have never met Ralph Oberchain," said Tiernan, "but I understand he is a good lawyer and a good fellow, and I think we ought to get together and talk things over."

Tiernan and Oberchain, it is said, had planned to establish a law partnership in Chicago.

Twenty Injured And Four Arrested As Result Of Rioting In Theater

RESERVES AND FIREMEN ARE ROUTED BY 'REBELS'

Effigy Of King George Burned In Protest Against Execution Of Childers

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Twenty persons are injured and four under arrest to-day as the result of rioting between 5,000 Irish Republican sympathizers, routed firemen and police reserves here last night.

An effigy of King George was burned at the height of the fighting, which was paralleled when the police tried to prevent an overflow meeting outside the Carroll Theater. Rioters hurled stones and bricks at the police and the police tried to break up the gathering.

The rioting began at 10 o'clock when the police tried to prevent an overflow meeting outside the Carroll Theater. Rioters hurled stones and bricks at the police and the police tried to break up the gathering.

FEDERAL PROBE OF KU KLUX KLAN WALSH DEMAND

Attorney General Called On For Thorough Investigation Of Secret Order

ORGANIZER SENDS DEFI TO MAYOR OF NEW YORK

Minister Declares City Will Be Stronghold In World Wide Move

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Senator Walsh, Massachusetts, to-day called on Attorney General Daugherty to make a thorough investigation of the Ku Klux Klan.

In a letter to Daugherty, Walsh asked for "immediate and vigorous action by your department."

Defi Sent Mayor
NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Ray, Oscar Haywood, KKK of New York to-day defied Mayor Wilson and announced that the Ku Klux Klan will make New York its greatest stronghold.

The organizer answered the mayor's order to police to force the Klan as they would "orderly houses and gangsters" with the announcement that E. D. Smith, Daugherty, and Daugherty of the state, would come here to help in forming chapters.

Simultaneously, the Klan became a storm center in New York. While the Daugherty officials, Walsh announced, some ministers disavowed the organization from the public in Sunday services. Haywood, in an interview, answering Walsh's declaration that the Klan stood for birth control, terrorism, and crime, and for the prohibition law in America, would eventually become world wide.

MAGNETIC THEORY AROUSES INTEREST

Scientist Declares Energy Travels In Waves At Same Speed As Light

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—Scientists here to-day were interested in the exposition of a new magnetic theory of Professor T. J. J. Thomson, in charge of the government observatory at Mare Island.

Thomson declared that he had advanced a theory that magnetic energy travels in waves at the same speed as light, and its cause lies in the action of waves in the ether.

This force, he declared, has close connection with gravitation and hence the force of gravity is transmitted from the planets at the same rate as light.

Ship Subsidy Fight Starts As Bill Is Taken Up In House

Proponents Of Administration Measure Are Confident Of Success In Weathering Storm Of Amendment Proposals; To Reach Vote Wednesday Evening

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Administration forces in the house were forced to accept a compromise when the first test of strength on amendments to the ship subsidy bill came in the house to-day.

An amendment by Representative Graham, Illinois, Republican, providing that the shipping board must offer for competitive bidding any vessel to be sold under the bill, was adopted.

Graham warned that Republican leaders must accept other amendments if the measure is to be made "defensible" to Republicans of the middlewest.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The administration ship subsidy bill sailed into dangerous waters to-day, as the measure was taken up in the house for amendments.

Republican leaders who claim there has been a decided shift of sentiment their way during the past few days, professed confidence that the bill would weather the gale and come to a final vote Wednesday without material change in its essential features and substantially as President Harding wants it. Subsidy opponents were just as confident they would be able to "shoot the bill to pieces."

Amendments To Be Fought
Indications are the bitterest fights will come on amendments to the proposed bill, which would:

- 1.—Increase the benefits of the subsidy the Standard Oil Company, U. S. Steel Corporation, United Fruit Company, the Gulf Refining-Sinclair Oil Company and other big oil companies, which carry their products in their own vessels.
- 2.—Greatly increase the interest rate which shipping lines would have to pay on the subsidy.
- 3.—Establish a more fixed subsidy under which the 1,400 tons of cargo capacity would be offered for sale. As the bill stands, it is claimed these ships could be virtually "given away."
- 4.—Require that the government vessels can not be gobbled up by one or two powerful financial combinations.
- 5.—Making the shipping board responsible to congress every year with a complete accounting and ask for appropriations to continue the subsidy. The bill now authorized a ten-year experiment to compare government vessels with private ones, to enable the making of ten-year contracts.
- 6.—Give farmers and producers a freight rebate of 25 per cent on goods shipped from interior points, for shipping on vessels receiving subsidy.
- 7.—Require that the bill be backed by the Western, farm bloc and shows promise of carrying.

Consideration of amendments will run through Wednesday night, and the vote on the subsidy taken that night.

Ambassador Godkin of Great Britain placed a communication before Secretary of State Hughes, declaring that the British government was involved in any attempt to influence the decision of congress on the ship subsidy measure.

BOOTLEG GANG IS SOUGHT BY POLICE IN LANUS MYSTERY

Officers Declare Murdered Man Financed Chicago Whisky Ring

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Operations of a gang of bootleggers were probed by police to-day as a possible clue to the unravelling of the mysterious murder of "Hansome Joe" Lanus, millionaire auto dealer.

The wealthy automobile man, who was shot and killed from behind in the rear room of his garage, is now believed to have been a victim of the leaders of a ring of bootleggers.

Lanus, according to authorities was financing the whisky ring, of which the man sought is the head. Authorities were also searching for a luxurious apartment which Lanus is said to have maintained for the entertainment of women guests.

Lanus had numerous affairs with women, whom he is believed to have entertained with clandestine lavabans in the mysterious apartment which the police believe will disclose important "leads" to solution of his murder.

1,500 TEACHERS HERE AS VALLEY MEETING OPENS

Educators Of Three Counties Gather For Institute Activities

SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE PRESIDENT IS SPEAKER

Support Public Is Giving Education Evidence Of Faith, He Says

The first general session of the 1922-1923 meeting of the California Teachers' Association, Central Section, opened in the high school auditorium at 10 o'clock to-day with 1,500 teachers, men and women, in attendance from Fresno city and county and Madera and Kings counties.

W. W. Kemp, president of San Jose State College, in an address on Education and the State, spoke of the results from the new interest in education throughout the world. "England and France at the acme of their greatest financial difficulties, took drastic steps to further education among the people," said Kemp.

"The Southern states have been backward in their educational methods, they have made slight progress, but the central states have been alert in studying their educational problems."

"Minnesota is preparing to put on a program of educational development at Mankato, to make a striking stride toward bettering her school system."

"California is conceded the leader in all educational movements, and we should be proud of this distinction."

"The response of the people of California in the issuing of school bonds through the state proves the interest of the people and their faith in education which is the basis of the safety of the nation."

"In speaking of salary schedules, Kemp stated that the people are willing to pay higher salaries providing the results are better."

"The growth in the high schools within the last twenty years is tremendous; the people's faith in education is greater to-day than it ever has been, and we must keep up the high standards set."

LAWYERS ARE TO HEAR WM. McADOO

Former Government Official Will Address Meeting At Banquet

One of the largest gatherings of lawyers ever assembled in Fresno will hear an address by William Gibbs McAdoo at the Hotel Fresno this evening.

The occasion is a banquet given by the Fresno County Bar Association and the Fresno Lawyers' Club. The banquet will start at 7 o'clock.

It will be an informal affair. Lawyers attending are invited to bring their wives.

McAdoo left Santa Barbara for Fresno this morning by automobile, accompanied by his wife, his son and the son's wife. They are scheduled to arrive here not later than 5:30 o'clock this evening.

The wives of a number of Fresno attorneys are arranging for a special reception for the McAdoo family. McAdoo was asked to speak on a subject of his own selection. He has stated that he would not talk on any political topic, but has not yet announced his subject.

The committee in charge of this evening's affair is Sam Hollins, Gilbert Jethers, Douglas May, E. K. Stewart and C. M. Peckinpah.

In addition to the Fresno lawyers who will be present, a number of attorneys from other places in the San Joaquin Valley.

BURCH TRIAL IS NEAR ITS CLOSE

Third Hearing Is Expected To Reach Jury By To-Night

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 27.—Probably by midnight eight women and four men will be debating what has become of the traditional problem for murder juries who killed John Melton Kennedy.

The jury in the third trial of Arthur C. Burch will be the fifth to tackle it.

Two juries in Burch's other two trials and two juries in the trials of Madalyn Obenchain, co-defendant, have disagreed.

Burch himself appears to feel certain he is to be acquitted this time. "Three times and out," was his comment, as Defense Attorney Schenck was making his last plea to the jury to-day. Schenck was expected to speak only briefly, until Deputy District Attorney Clark, who has already presented a lengthy plea, probably will finish his argument early in the afternoon.

Tax Collections Are Boosted By Payment

Today's collection figure in the office of Tax Collector Ray Baker was boosted considerably by one payment of $48,412.81 from the Standard Oil Company Pipe Line Producing Department.

Although fourteen of the tax collector's assistants are working for nothing by virtue of the recent supreme court ruling affecting deputies, they have declared their intention of sticking by their guns until the expiration of this tax collecting period on December 31st. Were it not for this voluntary action on their part, Baker said that his office force would be so crippled that it could not begin to handle the business.

Mayor Back From North; Health Much Improved

Mayor Truman G. Hart will be back at his desk in the city hall to-morrow morning after spending two weeks in San Francisco. He returned to Fresno yesterday morning.

His health is much improved, he said to-day.

He spent the day in the seclusion of his home going over administrative questions which have developed during his absence and of which he has been kept constantly in touch by telephone communication with Secretary Charles S. Rankin.

Football Player Fails To Stop At Goal; Is Sought

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—Tommy Buckman, star halfback at the Pasadena High school, today grounds, was sought by police to-day, charged with making the longest run on a football field to a touchdown, either in or out of the record books.

Tommy took the ball in a play ground game Saturday, ran the length of the field with it, hopped into an automobile and continued down the street.

As far as anyone knows he is still going—and with him the football.

Representative Frank W. Mondell, Republican leader of the house, and an administration spokesman, to-day urged the interests commences commission to divide the Central Pacific from the Southern Pacific and that the best interests of the Western states and the nation would be served.

Mondell was preceded by George E. Orber, president of the Idaho Public Utilities Commission, who offered testimony favoring divorce of the two roads. He introduced resolutions in support of this contention adopted by twelve civil organizations in his state.

DR. J. F. M'KENNA SLATED FOR JOB

Fresno Veterinarian Will Be Made Head Of State Office

Dr. John F. McKenna, president of the Fresno Veterinary Hospital, is slated to succeed Dr. J. T. Irwin, present chief of the division of animal industry of the state department of agriculture.

Dr. McKenna's appointment by President W. Richardson is considered a settled thing. It is understood here to-day, and he leaves to-night for a conference with the governor-elect on details of the state budget and appropriations for the new division of animal industry.

Dr. McKenna is president of the County Livestock Inspectors' Association of California, a member of the state board of examiners, and livestock inspector for Fresno County. Numerous endorsements by valley and state livestock associations have been given the Fresno veterinarian.

During the campaign Dr. McKenna was secretary of the Fresno County Richardson Club.

Fresno Identification Bureau Is Approved

Fresno County's bureau of identification under Deputy Sheriff Clarence Houser was highly praised by C. S. Morrill, superintendent of the state bureau of criminal identification and investigation, who stopped here yesterday on his bi-annual tour of the state.

Morrill, also secretary of the State Peace Officers' Association, advised Sheriff William P. Jones to make plans for a special meeting of about seventy-five members in the city on December 6th. He left Sunday morning for Bakersfield and San Diego.

Abie's Irish Rose Draws Despite Its Age

Crowd Greeted Sentimental Comedy At White Theater Yesterday

By EARL STRACHAN

A packed house at the White Theater yesterday afternoon and last night, and a packed house laughed at the funny situations of the comedy despite the fact that it has long since passed its youth.

Abie's Irish Rose seems unable to grow old, and many of those who attended have taken every opportunity in the past to witness performances of the play and still could not resist the temptation to go again last night.

The play was fairly well produced, Sidney Franklin, who took the part of Solomon Levy, Abie's father, being exceptionally good.

Both Christine Francis, who played Rose-Mary, and Harold Shubert, who appeared as Abie, played well, but in several scenes recited their lines in such a stilted and stilted manner that they did not appear natural.

Helen Brown, who took the part of Mrs. Isaac Cohen, has a personality which wins laughs and her manner of telling about her operation kept the audience in an uproar. Jack Frank, Mr. Cohen's husband, drew a hand for his part.

White Harry G. Keenan as Father Whalen and Phillip Ryder as Jacob Samuels, Rabbis, also were fairly good. Billy Fox, who played Patrick Murphy, father of Rose-Mary, was evidently supposed to be Irish, but no Irishman ever went to the extremes that Fox did last night, his part being greatly overacted.

After several minutes of confused conversation Hendeski finally found out what it was all about. He dressed and twenty minutes later he was making out a marriage license.

Judge Smith was then rushed from his slumbers. Thirty minutes at the Smith residence the Harts were reunited.

Hendeski said to-day that he didn't realize until yesterday's early morning expedition was all over that he had no "legal right" to participate in the wedding. He is one of some thirty divorced deputies at the courthouse and is working without pay.

MOVEMENT FOR RECALL QUIET

Supposed Candidates For The Mayoralty Refuse To Talk

Aside from the statement credited to unknown proponents of a recall movement against Mayor Truman G. Hart and Commissioner of Finance Charles Dillon, to the effect that plans for the recall campaign would be perfected at a secret meeting to-morrow morning, no one whose name has been mentioned in connection with the movement was able to-day to shed any light on the subject.

Butter Returns

William H. Butler who is said to be slated as recall candidate for mayor declined to discuss the subject, stating that he had been out of the city for a week and had too great an accumulation of business on hand to take time to go into the question. He was asked whether or not he had learned any of the details of the movement, to which he declined an answer.

Foster Not Approached

Harry Foster, mentioned as candidate on the recall slate for the office of commissioner of finance, has not yet been approached with a tender of the recall candidacy he said, nor has he been officially informed as to the identity of those who are back of the movement.

Until such time as he learns who is backing the recall move he will not give it serious consideration, he intimated.

CLARA PHILLIPS GIVEN SENTENCE

Judge Denies Motion For A New Trial In Murder Case

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 27.—Clara Phillips to-day was sentenced to serve from ten years to life in San Quentin Penitentiary for beating out the life of Alberta Meadows with a hammer.

Superior Judge McCormick, sitting for Judge Hoover, pronounced the sentence, after denying the motion for a new trial which was made by Deputy Public Defender Scott.

Defense Attorney Ill

Scott represented Mrs. Phillips in the absence of Defense Attorney Herrington, who left the court room before the case was called. Herrington was reported ill.

"I can see no reason why a new trial should be granted in the case," said Judge McCormick, and then asked Mrs. Phillips if she knew of any reason why she should not be sentenced immediately.

Mrs. Phillips, dressed in black and appearing almost completely indifferent to the proceedings, merely shook her head negatively, and said nothing.

Stay Is Granted

Scott asked for a ten day stay of execution to prepare an appeal, and it was granted.

The action was expected, as it was believed the case would be delayed again and there was only a small crowd in the court room.

FARM BUREAU TO HONOR OFFICERS

Banquet To Be Given This Evening At Hotel Hughes

Fifty guests are expected at a banquet at Hughes Hotel this evening complimenting Mr. and George Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wrightson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Murphy.

Directors Are Hosts

Directors of the Fresno County Farm Bureau will be hosts at the banquet and prominent agriculturists of Fresno County, in addition to farm bureau department of agriculture officials, will attend.

Wrightson and Weaver are past presidents of the Fresno farm bureau, Wrightson having retired from the office after two terms re-elected. Weaver was president for three years.

Murphy Promoted

Murphy has been promoted for assistant farm adviser of Fresno County, where he has been in charge of livestock and dairy work, to farm adviser of San Luis Obispo County, and will leave here December 2nd to assume his new post.

PRISONER RETURNED

Richard O. Fowler, former book-keeper for the Growers National Bank, was brought here Sunday from San Francisco, where he was arrested at the request of local officers. The complaint against Fowler was sworn to by M. L. Wells, cashier of the bank, charging him with falsifying and destroying records in the bank. Fowler made no denial of the crime, according to Detective Inspector Edward A. Nichols, who brought him back.

ROOSEVELT CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—To-night is the time set for the organization of the Roosevelt Club of Northern California. Organization will be perfected at a dinner to be held at the Palace Hotel. A committee of thirty-four, headed by Theodore J. Roche, has the arrangements in charge, and the announcement was made last night that between 500 and 1,000 persons will be seated about the tables when Lieutenant-Governor C. C. Young calls the gathering to order at 8:30 o'clock.

Responses to invitations sent out have been received from all sections of Northern California, and these in charge say it will be the most notable gathering of politicians held in San Francisco in many months.

Thanksgiving Spirit Dominant Feature At Rotary Luncheon

The Thanksgiving spirit dominated the weekly luncheon meeting of the Fresno Rotary Club to-day. Dean G. R. E. MacDonald of St. James Pro-Cathedral, speaking briefly on the religious aspects of the occasion, while it was dealt with from an economic standpoint by W. M. Giffen, president of the San-Maid Raisin Growers' Association. The people of Fresno and vicinity have many things to be thankful for from an economic standpoint alone, Giffen declared, principal among which is the fact that their crops are so bountiful and bring satisfactory prices.

Pacific-Southwest Review

Organization Best Means For Growth Of Community

By HENRY AVILA,
Assistant Manager, Pacific-Southwest Trust & Savings Bank.

The only way to secure the most efficient and desirable growth of a community is through its people working together as a body and cooperating for real progress in its development. There is no agency in a better position to provide the necessary cooperative organization than is the Chamber of Commerce. In reality, the Chamber is nothing but a business organization of the cooperative interests of the city, working together for the best growth and best development of the community.

Naturally, as a cooperative enterprise, it can accomplish only as much as the support of the people of the community permits it to accomplish.

In California we have learned from our experience with cooperative marketing agencies that when successful they are of the greatest possible benefit, but they can be successful only when their membership consists of the major portion of the operators in the particular line of business.

The situation with regard to a Chamber of Commerce is exactly parallel. There is no organization that can do more for a city than can a Chamber of Commerce when its membership includes the entire business community and when it is actually supported by all of those living in the city. At the same time, unless it does have this support, it is next to impossible for the Chamber to be of much value. In other words, the value of the Chamber of Commerce is dependent entirely upon the extent to which it is supported by the city.

While on the subject of cooperative effort, it is interesting to note that just the other day the San-Maid Raisin Growers celebrated the tenth anniversary of the birth of their organization. On November 15, 1912, the raisin growers of the San Joaquin Valley formed an organization designed to improve conditions by making the growers independent of speculators and brokers. It has since then been successful in stabilizing the markets and assuring a increased return to the grower.

When the organization was formed, raisin production totaled 24,512 tons. This year 90 per cent of the American crop, or about 200,000 tons, will be handled through the Association. Through this period raisin sales through this Association have increased from approximately a million and a half dollars to forty millions. This Association has created the demand for this tremendous crop and is handling it as only it could be handled—through cooperative effort.

This story is the story of practically every cooperative marketing organization.

Calisthenics Started By Members Of Fire Department Of Fresno

Calisthenics this morning became a part of the regular program of the Fresno Fire Department when Captain J. M. Daugherty, recently appointed physical instructor, organized the officers of the department into the first physical culture class. The class was held at the city hall, and after he had outlined the schedule of instruction and put them through a short period of calisthenics, they were dismissed briefly by Chief Thomas Baird and First Assistant Chief Ralph Williams. Third Assistant Chief Frank W. Walsh was also present.

Officers of the department will be organized as another class to-morrow morning when they go on duty at the various houses, and after that time the daily schedule of the department will include an early morning class in physical training for all officers.

When the officers have become proficient in calisthenics each will be instructed in his own department, according to Chief Baird's plan.

Man Arrested Here Is Held As Murder Witness

Thomas McCabe is held as a material witness by Sheriff W. A. ... of San Bernardino County for the murders of Thomas P. Moore and James Buckley on November 19th at St. Elmo, according to information received by Detective Inspector Joe Merritt to-day.

McCabe was arrested in Fresno on October 2nd on the charge of intoxication and on October 3rd was sentenced to serve twenty days in jail, according to the police. Thomas McCabe was also arrested with Moore on the same day and served the same sentence.

James Buckley was shot in the head at the same time that Moore was slain at St. Elmo, the San Bernardino sheriff says.

Children Entertain At Legion Luncheon

Tiny exponents of aesthetic dancing entertained at the American Legion Luncheon Club to-day. Those taking part in the solo and ensemble numbers were Jane O'Hare, Marjorie Bay Johnson, Lela Sloumon, Shirley Rattenberger, Loma May Bernauer, Marjorie Summers and Genevieve Cunningham.

Luncheon prizes were won by Charles Dillon, Robert Heavens, John Kimball and Niel Cunningham. Howard Greenleaf presided. B. J. Flanagan was appointed chairman and will make arrangements for the next luncheon.

NEW UNIFORMS FOR HIGH CADETS

The Fresno High School cadet corps will be the smartest organization of its kind in California when its members shed the olive drab uniforms to adopt the new summer uniforms of the United States Military Academy. The change has been already authorized.

The dress uniform of the United States military training school with its distinctive head piece, its tailed coat, white leather belts crossing the chest and black stripes down the outside seam of the trousers will give the Fresno boys a unique place among other high school cadet corps of the state.

The uniforms, which will be obtained in San Francisco, shortly. Measurements of one of the cadets have been forwarded to one of the cadets in that city handling uniforms.

The assumption of the West Point summer uniform will mean a considerable expenditure on the part of the boys, which the school is to raise through entertainments. The first of these will be given December 15th at 8 P. M. in the high school auditorium.

Program Arranged:
The complete program follows:
1. Overture: Cadet Military Band.
2. Pastoral: Santa Emma, leader.
3. First act from Everyman.
4. Leo Cooper's dramatic class.
5. Piano solo, Mrs. Harry Coffey.
6. Contralto solo, Mrs. Emma Mesow Fitch.
7. One act play, The Stronger.
8. Millie Stenberg and Elizabeth Wilson.
9. Vocal solo, Mrs. Arch Jack.
10. Character Impersonations, Leo Cooper.
11. Cornet solo, Pasquale Santa Emma.
12. Overture, Cadet Military Band.
13. One act play, The String of the Samson, Japanese students of the high school.

The play will be produced under the direction of Leo Cooper.

Armenian General Is Host To Friends Here At Luncheon At Hotel

General Antranik Ozanian, the Armenian soldier-entertainer, host of compatriots at a banquet at the Hughes Hotel yesterday afternoon.

Dr. S. Tufenkian presided as toastmaster. Following the dinner Antranik addressed the guests on the duties of American citizenship.

"It is your duty," he said, "to obey the laws of this country and serve the United States in every way possible. You should serve the stars and stripes—fighting if necessary, for this is the only country in which we can look for aid in our present trouble."

Antranik spoke dramatically of the future of Armenia, stating that although the Turks had destroyed 2,000,000 Armenians the nation would never be destroyed and that while the outlook at present is dark, it is by no means hopeless and the Turks are much weaker than before the war as they have lost more than 2,000,000 in battle and increased their debt.

"Russia," he said, "is apparently friendly toward Turkey and is backing her, but the two nations can never be friends."

Demurrer Filed To Traffic Suit By Cow's Owner

Asa W. Allen, sued for damages by Anton Wolf of Fresno because he allowed a heifer to run on the highway without a tail light, to-day filed a demurrer to the complaint in Justice G. W. Smith's court, stating that the complaint is ambiguous.

The demurrer alleges that the complaint is ambiguous in that it fails to show whether the cow ran into the auto, or the auto ran into the cow, and whether the accident was caused by the negligence of the driver or the negligence of the owner of the automobile.

The hearing on the demurrer will be held shortly.

Funeral Services For J. Madsen Wednesday

Funeral services for Jens Madsen, who died Wednesday afternoon at the chapel of Lisle and Ross.

The dead man's body was found Saturday afternoon by a neighbor. Madsen was 52 years old and came to the United States thirty-two years ago, settling in Fresno. He later purchased a ranch near Rolinda.

He survived by five brothers and sisters, Mrs. Johanna Madsen and Mrs. Maria Madsen of Fresno, Mrs. Christensen of Oakland, Mrs. Madsen of Berkeley, and Mrs. Madsen of San Francisco.

Madsen was a member of the Danish Brotherhood No. 67. Burial will be held in Mount View Cemetery.

Tom Kelly Found Guilty Of Robbery

Tom Kelly was found guilty of robbery by a jury before Judge C. E. Beaumont in the superior court to-day. The jury deliberated but a few minutes. Judge Beaumont set the time for fixing Kelly's sentence at December 1st at 10 A. M.

The complaining witness was J. W. Star. The city, Star charged Kelly with robbing him of $12 on last October 8th.

Kelly was represented by Ray Carter and Gilbert—either. The case was prosecuted for the county by Deputy District Attorney Penn Cummings.

Luncheon Mission To Honor Planned Leader

A mass meeting and luncheon in honor of Mrs. Henry W. Peabody will be held here by the Federation of Missionary Societies December 5th. Mrs. Peabody is the chairman of the national committee of the Federation of Christian Churches of the Orient, and will speak here about a campaign to be waged by the local federation to raise funds for Christian colleges in the Orient.

This meeting will also be to discuss ways and means, according to Mrs. Peabody, who is president of the Fresno Federation, she states that the plan is embryonic and will be announced more completely later.

Le Master Is President Of New Organization Of Planning Mill Men

An additional title to the string which he already holds was bestowed upon C. D. Le Master, Fresno lumberman, when the Western Planning Mills and Woodworking Association named him president at its organization meeting in San Francisco on Saturday.

The entire planning mill industry of the West is affiliated by means of this association, which was made possible largely by Le Master's personal activities.

Two Fresno lumbermen, A. W. Bernauer and C. W. Dingham, made addresses upon costs, as did W. P. Flint of Chicago.

P. R. Truax of the Forest Products Laboratories at Madison, Wis., talked on the use and value of veneer and glue, and C. L. Hill of San Francisco laboratories talked on kiln dried lumber.

Others on the program were George Little of Fresno, George M. Cornwell, editor of The Timberman, J. C. Hewick, state superintendent of industrial instruction of Sacramento, and Harrison S. Robinson of Oakland.

Red Cross Report Is Made For Month By Chairman Wm. Glass

A public resume of last month's work in the home service department of the Fresno Red Cross has been made public by William Glass, chairman of the sixth report. The report is in part as follows:

"We have investigated twenty-one cases. There were investigations, and some from the government, and have helped in adjusting twenty-seven compensation claims, seven insurance claims, paid $6.60 in premiums for a disabled service man to keep up his insurance, secured five bonuses and assisted vocational trainees to the extent of $105.

"Transportation was obtained for one ex-serviceman who wished to go back to his home in Italy. His wife had died and left three small children in Italy. Another case came up where we sent a man to his home in Pasadena, sick and unable to work, and we sent him to Seattle. We have taken care of three insurance claims on account of death, helped get administration papers for insurance and compensation claims.

"On another occasion we sent a woman and two children back to Arizona, as the government had provided transportation only for the husband.

"We have provided rooms, meals, medicine and clothing for the needy in addition to giving information to over 200 people during the month."

Mrs. Untermyer To Be Bride Of Elliott Dexter

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 26.—Elliott Dexter and Mrs. Nina Untermyer will be married this week.

This much has been admitted, and they have confided to Cecil B. De Mille the task of keeping the other details secret.

De Mille, in other words, has been made director of the wedding. He would not deny that the ceremony might be performed at Mrs. Untermyer's beautiful home in Riverside, but then, he would not say so.

Twenty-Five Cars Are Wrecked In Accidents During The Week-End

More than twenty-five automobile accidents in the city over the week-end were reported to the police. None of the collisions on Sunday were serious.

Judge James G. Clifton imposed the maximum penalties on speeders within the city limits, and not one of them will get by with a light fine.

This is the inauguration of a movement to curtail reckless driving in the city and cutting down the number of accident cases which have increased greatly during the last month.

The accidents Sunday include a collision on G and Kern Streets by E. H. Brockalt, Route 1, Box 24, with H. McClelland, 812 M. Street; with H. Bernhardt, and C. M. Corbly, 1127 Van Ness Street, with street car No. 24, at J and Tulumano Streets, and A. Krenshaw, motorcyclist, and C. F. Snyder at Van Ness and San Benito Streets.

H. O. Maccom of Armonk and Mildred Alm, Route 8, Box 157, were slightly injured Sunday when the automobile in which they were riding was struck and turned over. The accident happened at California and Valentine Avenues at 4:30 P. M.

Miss Alm suffered a bruised finger and abrasions of the neck while Maccom suffered a laceration over the right eye and a puncture of the right knee.

Of the seven seriously injured in auto accidents during the last two weeks one was a child, Alice Dietrich, who had both legs broken but who is resting nicely at a local hospital.

During the last fortnight three persons have been killed, two of them being children, Pearl Cellin and James Manning.

Teachers of the city who are members of the Methodist Church will be the guests of the Epworth League of the First Methodist Church at a social Friday, December 8th.

The Deductions of Harvey Hunt

By PHILIP FRANCIS NOWLAN
(Copyright, 1922, by Public Ledger Co.)

XVIII
In the case of "Elusive Liquor" there really was no liquor except that in the single barrel that had been smashed. Deganey had his men drop that barrel off the truck on purpose to arouse suspicion. As he had a permit for the liquor he knew he could not be sent to jail for it. His game was to get the rumor abroad that he had whisky for illicit sale in order that he might sell barrels of colored water for whisky, trusting that none of his victims would make complaint to officials until after he had safely gotten away.

The fact that both he and his employees, when questioned apart, had asserted the other barrel on the trucks were empty, whereas there were witnesses to prove they were whisky enough to have been full, was what first made Harvey suspect that all was not what it seemed. If the trucks really had been loaded with whisky Hunt figured, the men would not have expected to be caught and would not have said such a detail as this when deganey returned to his warehouse he had, of course, simply emptied the water out of the barrels and tossed them up on the other empty barrels in the yard, knowing that the government agents would think he had managed to secrete the supposed whisky, also knowing that he was perfectly safe from conviction upon evidence which really did not exist.

Can You Solve The Mystery Of—
So far as the public was concerned it was only a one-day news flare when the home of Ezra Drinkwater, one of the city's minor millionaires, and that of John Klegg, his next-door neighbor, were broken into.

An expert yegg had blown the safe in the Drinkwater mansion and taken a $200,000 necklace and cash, which happened about $150. He had allowed none of the more cumbersome valuables to tempt him. He hadn't taken a thing from the Klegg house, in fact it was only chance and the usually keen eye of one of the city detectives that developed that Klegg's home had been entered, so carefully had the window been jammed.

The police attributed the crime to one Sam Korth, one of the cleverest and boldest yeggs in the country. It showed signs of his characteristic handwork in the opening of the safe, but this would be proof for a jury and there were no finger marks; and though Korth had been arrested on suspicion by a patrolman not two blocks from the scene of the crime, no particle of the loot was found on him.

Old Drinkwater, dissatisfied with the progress of the police, and eager to recover the necklace, sent for Harvey Hunt, who obtained the foregoing data from his old friend, Detective Quigley, who was in charge of the case.

"Absolutely no outstanding clue to take hold of outside of the fact that the job has all the earmarks of Korth's work, whom you don't any ice with a jury," commanded Quigley, "and furthermore, it doesn't tell us how to recover the necklace. We can't write anything out of Sam Korth with the third degree. Somebody else may be, but not Sam Korth."

"I think we've got a very good clue," said Hunt.

"Like the old woman kept the tavern, we have," retorted Quigley sarcastically. "What is it?"

"Well," said Quigley, "we might get a little and send him up for vengeance, or resisting arrest. He did take a crack at the cop, you know. But that would only keep him out of trouble for a few weeks, and it wouldn't find the necklace for us. I don't know. Hunt, guess the only thing we can do is turn him loose and try to trail him to his loot. He'll want to fish it out and dispose of it some time. But he's a hard man to keep under surveillance. Internally clever, he disappeared unexpectedly, even with a man right at his heels. It's a slim chance, but the only one we've got."

"I'll make a bargain with you," said Hunt. "You phone to me instantly when he manages to shake off the men you have watching him, and I'll pick him up together with the necklace and enough evidence to send him up where he won't be seen."

Can you tell how Harvey Hunt expected to do this, and on what clue he based the expectation? The answer will appear tomorrow.

Fresno County Resident Passes Away In North

William T. Burnett, 62, for many years a resident of Fresno County, died suddenly at his home in Oakland yesterday. Burnett, who was a rancher, had lived near Sanger since 1873, until he retired two and a half years ago.

Funeral services will be held at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, Fresno, at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. The Sanger Camp, Woodmen of the World, will officiate at the grave side, at Fairview cemetery. Burnett was a charter member of the Sanger Woodmen.

Besides his wife, Ella, he leaves his children, Clyde, Ralph and Marion of Sanger, Roy Hugh and Mary of Oakland, Mrs. Burton Wilson of Manteca and Mrs. Charles Leonard of Livingston, a brother, J. E. Burnett of Fresno, and a sister, Mrs. Jerry Tindall.

NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL OFFERS First Presbyterian Church, will be the superintendent of the Community Sunday School, open yesterday in Torrance Terrace, at Lamona and Minnesota Avenues. This Sunday school is under the control of the Presbyterian Church, stated McGaw to-day, but is to be run as nearly as a non-sectarian church as possible. A community Sunday school has also been opened at Placerville, the new townsite adjoining the Sugar Pine Mill, near this city. The first meeting of the Torrance Terrace Sunday School was presided over by the Rev. E. F. Knickerbocker of this city.

CLUBS

The American Association of University Women met Saturday afternoon in the Blue Triangle Court. A large number of members being present and the university represented included the University of California, Stanford, Michigan, Pomona, Missouri, Columbia, Cornell, Chicago, Emerson, Elmhurst, Illinois, Minnesota, Ottawa, Occidental, Ohio State, Oberlin, Purdue, South Methodist University of Dallas, Texas, Utah, Vassar, Whitier, Wooster and Grinnell.

After a short business meeting an interesting program was given. The Stanford group gave a short take-off of "The Mind in the Making." The skit (this never could have happened to a Stanford student) was written by Mrs. C. Leeburn Vanderburgh and brought out the fact that people are so apt to take things for granted without thinking or looking deeper. The cast

What's What

By HELEN DEGIS

When a guest, who had been invited to a Thanksgiving or other dinner and who had accepted the invitation, has been unavoidably detained in another city or town, he may send a "night letter" of explanation at a trifling cost for the telegraphic service. Fifty words are allowed in this telegram at the regular rate for a ten-word day message, and, no matter how far away the sender may be, the telegraphed night letter is delivered to his hostess the following morning. This is less expensive and more satisfactory than a long-distance telephone apology.

Winter services will be held at it impossible to be present at a dinner party, he should inform the hostess without delay, so that she may have time to find a substitute for him at her table. The explanation should be worded with courteous regrets for the pleasure missed through unavoidable circumstances.

The Latest From Queen Fashion's Court

Copyright, 1922, Public Ledger Co.

PARIS, Nov. 11.—Very chic indeed is this attractive tailored suit from the Maiton Beer.

Its name strangely enough is "cocktail," which no doubt in some minds will conjure up longings and happy visions.

Let me assure you that the vision of the suit on the bewitching mannequin leaves nothing to be desired. It is expressed in beige colored wool velour, warm but very light in weight, which enables the introduction of plaits in the skirt, without in any way interfering with the straight silhouette.

The skirt you will notice, is on rather novel lines, the fit inverted, plait in front being shorter than those at the side, which continue up to the hips. At the extreme side a braided brown trimming to match the design on the coat runs up the center of a panel.

The straight, becoming jacket has a wide sleeve, opening below the elbow and trimmed with beaver to match collar and lapels. Even a cup can be utilized for the purpose.

Brown and lighter beige wool form the braided embroidery. This makes an attractive arrangement in the shape of a diamond medallion ending in three loops which appear just entering the V-shaped opening in the fur.

Similar embroidery appears again on the sleeve just inside the fur.

LODGE NEWS

The annual bazaar for the benefit of the Odd Fellows' Orphanage at Gilroy was held Saturday afternoon and evening by the Fresno Rebekah Lodge 153.

The bazaar, which proved a financial success, lasted throughout the afternoon and evening.

Card games were played during the afternoon and dancing was a feature of the evening's entertainment.

Following the regular meeting of the Women's Benefit Association plans were made for the bazaar to be given in the A. O. U. W. Hall next Tuesday evening.

The bazaar promises to be a novel affair several new features being introduced.

During the evening a musical program will be given which will be followed by dancing.

The public is invited to attend. A trophy concert of the Solo band, that carried away all the honors at the recent state convention, was held at the Woodman Hall last Saturday evening, and was attended by almost the entire Soloist organization.

Teoparch William Stranahan, who presided at the meeting, Ray W. Baker and C. K. Wakefield were the speakers.

A report of the convention at Sacramento was read.

Following the program of music and varied entertainment the members adjourned to the Masonic Hall where a banquet was held.

School Cafeteria Not Discussed At Meeting

There was no official discussion by the city board of education Saturday night of the Fresno High School cafeteria and student body co-operative store. Principal Delbert Brunton, instructed by Superintendent of School W. J. Cooper, attended the meeting, prepared to defend both institutions.

As no one appeared to oppose the operation of the store and cafeteria, members of the board refused to consider the matter. It was in no "tangible form" for consideration. George Cosgrove, president, remarked.

Brunton's presence at the meeting was due to instructions to submit details of the business conducted by the store and cafeteria, following a letter from City Attorney H. M. Johnston to Cooper, asking for this information and pointing out that a city ordinance requires that these activities be operated under a license.

Two Thousand Attend Citrus Show Opening

LINDSAY (Tulare Co.), Nov. 27.—Nearly 2,000 visitors attended the opening day of the Community Exposition and Citrus Show Saturday. The exhibits from the various Tulare County towns form one of the most complete exhibitions of citrus fruit ever assembled in the valley, and the beauty of the display of the golden fruit has drawn praise from the visitors.

Practically all exhibits were complete for the opening day. Saturday, and additional entries have been made since the opening. These new exhibits will be on display today and throughout the remainder of the week.

Sixteen citrus exhibits are on display.

Kern County Teachers In Three-Day Institute

BAKERSFIELD (Kern Co.), Nov. 27.—Five hundred and seventy-five Kern County teachers gathered here this morning at the opening session of a three-day institute, the forty-first to be held in this city.

The sessions opened this morning at 9:30 o'clock with musical selections played by the high school orchestra under the direction of H. J. Burr. Ray, George L. Warner, and the invocation followed by an introductory address by County Superintendent of Schools L. E. Chenoweth.

Miss Ruth Laurence, president of the Bakersfield Teachers Club responded.

Several vocal and instrumental numbers were interspersed throughout the morning session.

In the afternoon C. C. Hill, principal of the Wasco High School, is to be the principal speaker. The sessions are in charge of J. R. Cookman, principal of the high school at Maricopa.

MONOLITH MAN, CAUGHT IN MILL MACHINE, DIES

George Klaibor Is Victim Of Accident In Cement Plant In Kern

BAKERSFIELD (Kern Co.), Nov. 27.—While working on some machinery at the Monolith Cement plant located at Monolith, George Klaibor, 46, cement miller for the last year and a half, at the plant, was caught in a conveyor receiving injuries, which an hour later resulted in his death.

Klaibor was badly mangled before he could be rescued. Klaibor was a widower and had no known relatives with the exception of his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Jens, of San Fernando. A will found in his bank house at Monolith makes Mrs. Jens the sole beneficiary.

The body is being held here pending funeral arrangements and the holding of the inquest this afternoon.

PROPERTY OF CONSTRUCTION FIRM ATTACHED

Personal Property Of President Also Is Seized By Bank Receiver

OAKDALE (Stanislaus Co.), Nov. 27.—All the highway construction outfit of the Northern California Construction Company, the firm which recently completed the contract on the Sonora lateral of the state highway, together with the personal property of Dr. H. Hornum, the president of the company, has been attached by a receiver in charge of the Alameda State Bank of Alameda, which recently was closed by order of the state bank examiner, and a receiver placed in charge of the property.

The Northern California Construction Company borrowed heavily from the Alameda State Bank to carry on its work, and as the construction company lost approximately $50,000 on the contract they were unable to reimburse the bank.

Among the property attached were several carloads of mules which Dr. Hornum had shipped here from Modoc County for sale among the farmers.

Briggs Was Pioneer Editor In Visalia

Visalia (Tulare Co.), Nov. 27.—News of the death last week of Modesto, of H. M. Briggs, collector for the Modesto Irrigation District and prominent in the I. O. O. F., received old memories among Visalia citizens of the days when Briggs was registered for the United States land office in Visalia and proprietor of the Visalia Vista.

He was one of the best known and most prominent of Visalia citizens, having been in the land office for 15 years and his editorial policies, as expressed through the columns of the Delta, are said to have been of value in assisting in the later formation of Kings County.

FARM BUREAU IN KERN COUNTY HAS ANNUAL ELECTION

Arvin Man Is New Head Selected At Meeting In Bakersfield

BAKERSFIELD (Kern Co.), Nov. 27.—The Kern County Farm Bureau elected officers in the closing session held here Saturday afternoon of the annual convention of the farmers' organization.

The following were elected officers for the ensuing year: President, L. B. Nourse, Arvin; vice-president, J. W. Coulter, Kern; Delia L. A. Burton, Weed Patch; C. Brown, Edison Fairfax; Edwin Booth, Wasco; and C. H. Stiles, McFarland, directors at large.

Brewster, a prominent vineyardist of the county who has been president of the bureau for the last year, presided at the session in the auditorium of the county high school, and made his farewell address to the members. President Brewster was not a candidate for re-election of the session was the annual financial statement presented by Mrs. Rasmussen. This report showed a cash balance on hand at the close of the year of $15,550.

Receipts during the year amounted to $49,481.15, while the current operating expense was $3,457.

A total revenue of $10,700.56 was reported, with a total operating expense of $10,451.64, leaving a credit balance of $273.92 for the year. Assets of the organization are given as $2,361.57.

Farm Advisor Reports

Another important feature of the afternoon session was the reading of the annual report submitted by Myron A. Rice, farm advisor, on the progress and status of agricultural extension work in Kern County. Summarizing the report, a vast amount of work had been accomplished by the farm advisor and his assistants.

Water Storage District

Among the various items submitted in the annual report of J. J. Deuel, manager of the bureau, was a reference to the Kern River Water Storage District. Manager Deuel stated that the district was incorporated and circulated petitions, maintained filings in good standing and contested the application of the city of Los Angeles on the South Fork of Kern River.

Deuel also referred to the application of the San Joaquin Light and Power Company to the state railroad commission for a new rate base, which also was contested by the bureau.

Action with regard to the Southern California Edison rate case was taken, according to the report. A credit meeting was held with power users, bankers, merchants and representatives of the power corporation, and from two to four months' credit was obtained for more than fifty farmers.

Grain Exchange Profitable

A grain exchange, handling grain for its members at a profit of $1 a ton over sales to commission, is among the benefits reported.

Other features of the afternoon session, which opened with a prayer by Rev. C. C. Hill, included the annual report of Mrs. C. L. Martin, chairman of the farm home department; reading of the annual report of P. E. Grunert, chairman of the dairy department; report of the livestock auction sales department by C. A. Melcher, chairman; irrigation district committee report by Herman T. Miller, chairman; address by Dwight L. Clarke, director of the Civilian Conservation Corporation, on the association's relation to the farmer.

YOUNG WOMAN IS FATALLY HURT IN FOWLER ACCIDENT

Automobile Strikes Down Maroon While Crossing Highway Sunday Night

POWELL (Fresno Co.), Nov. 27.—Internal injuries resulting from an accident occurring when she was struck by an automobile driven by a local driver, resulted in the death of Mrs. M. A. Fowler, 34, who died in a Fowler hospital shortly after being taken there for treatment.

Mrs. Arguilla was crossing the highway in Fowler when she was struck down by Woodstock's car. When taken to the hospital the woman appeared to be only slightly injured, and regained consciousness after being treated.

She was suffering however from concussion of the brain, and the injuries proved fatal.

Inquest To-morrow

Coroner John L. Loe will hold an inquest at 10 A. M. to-morrow to determine the responsibility for the death.

An autopsy was held to-day in Fowler and the result will be given to Coroner Loe before the inquest.

Woodstock declares that the woman walked out from an unlighted street on the highway directly in the path of his machine. He says that she was too close to stop or avoid hitting. He disclaims all responsibility for the accident.

POWDER MEN OPEN HOLES AT GOODWIN DAM

Sluice Ways Being Blasted To Permit Passage Of More Water

KNIGHTS FERRY (Stanislaus Co.), Nov. 27.—A crew of powder men is busily engaged blasting out sluice ways holes at the Goodwin Irrigation Dam, about three miles above Knights Ferry.

The work is being done by a quantity of silt and sand that has collected in the dam since the dam was constructed some years ago provision was made for this emergency by leaving these holes, which have been blocked with timbers.

The blasting of more water through these sluice ways will clear out the accumulation, and will result in the passage of more water into the canal, being done at the Mills Sac Dam.

Fresnan Is Jailed By Visalia Police On Liquor Charge

Visalia (Tulare Co.), Nov. 27.—O. Ontiveros, a Fresno, was arrested late Saturday night by Officer George H. Hagan, and is being held on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated. His companion, Juan Alvarado, also of Fresno, is charged with possessing five gallons of intoxicating liquor.

Both declared they had received the liquor in Fresno but refused to divulge from whom they got it.

Oakdale Boy Admits Chicken Thelth There

OAKDALE (Stanislaus Co.), Nov. 27.—When William McKenzie, of this city, recently discovered that his hen roost had been raided and that a dozen of his choicest chickens had been purloined, he decided to turn sleuth and began a quiet investigation that located his stolen property day or so later in a chop in the back yard of a restaurant.

Marcel Wood was notified of the whereabouts of the chickens and, upon consulting the Chinese proprietor, was told that he bought them from Joseph Collins, a youth of 13 years.

The lad confessed to the marshall he had stolen the chickens and, upon consulting the Chinese proprietor, was told that he bought them from Joseph Collins, a youth of 13 years.

Modesto Lads Held On Auto Stealing Charge

Modesto (Stanislaus Co.), Nov. 27.—Leslie Cox and Frank W. Modesto, boys, and John W. Gilbert, were arrested in Hanford, Contra Costa County, yesterday afternoon and are charged with having a stolen car in their possession.

The car in which they were riding, police say, belonged to J. L. Kellerman of Modesto. Chief of Police Lee Smith and Sheriff Dallas left today to bring the trio back to Modesto.

According to police, Gilbert has been in similar trouble before.

Automobile Is Stolen From Fowler Garage

FOWLER (Fresno Co.), Nov. 27.—Automobile thieves forced an entrance through a back window of the Fowler garage here last night, and after opening the back door, drove away in an automobile belonging to R. L. Kincaid, which was taken from the floor of the garage.

No trace of the men has been found by the officers.

Bakersfield Organizes Municipal Water Board To Launch Project

BAKERSFIELD (Kern Co.), Nov. 27.—Mayor H. L. Hougham has appointed L. N. Slater a member of the board of trustees of the municipal water district to serve with five members who were named at the election held November 7.

Slater is president of the Chamber of Commerce and has been prominently identified with progressive movements in both city and county affairs for a number of years. Other members of the board are A. Hughes, Mel Hay, C. R. Blodgett, George Parker and C. K. Badger.

Announcement was made today that a meeting of the board as required by law will be held December 15 at the city hall for the purpose of effecting an organization, naming officers and preparing for a complete investigation of the water situation in the city of Bakersfield.

With Survey Systems

One of the first duties of the new board will be the employment of a firm of engineers for the purpose of making a careful survey of the two water systems and the needs of the city. An attorney will also be employed to advise the board on legal questions.

A period of six to eight months, it is understood, will be sufficient to make the survey required and to arrive at a valuation for the two privately owned companies. When this has been accomplished a call for a bond issue will be made with which to take over and operate two plants as one municipal water system.

STOCKTON MAN SUCCEUMBS AFTER AUTO MISHAP

MODesto (Stanislaus Co.), Nov. 27.—L. R. Braustetter, proprietor of the Stockton Ice Cream Company, who was injured in an automobile accident near here November 14th, while he was enroute to Fresno to attend the Pacific Slope Dairy Products Show, died at a local hospital Saturday night.

F. M. Howe of Stockton was driving the car at the time the accident occurred. L. R. Braustetter, of Stockton, was a passenger in the car. Howe was unhurt, and Taylor escaped with minor injuries.

The body yesterday was shipped to Stockton for burial.

DRILLER SUES KERN COUNTY OIL COMPANY

Bakersfield Man Claims Marathon Company Owes Him $42,681

BAKERSFIELD (Kern Co.), Nov. 27.—A claim for $42,681.25 is being heard in superior court before Judge T. N. Harvey, the plaintiff, C. T. Dougherty, alleging that this amount is due him from the Marathon Oil Company and its agents, on account covering a period of the last four years.

According to Dougherty the oil company engaged him to furnish labor and materials for drilling in Kern County, and that the company has failed to pay him amounts due. In its answer to the complaint the company enters a denial of the allegations, and sets up a counter claim for $17,125, said to be due on stock assessments and other items.

Numerous witnesses have been called in the case, which may not be completed until early next week.

Sportsmen Of Two Counties To Organize

Modesto (Stanislaus Co.), Nov. 27.—Nearly 500 sportsmen of Stanislaus and Tuolumne Counties have signified their intention of being present here Tuesday night for the purpose of organizing a new organization to protect the game, to see that game laws are enforced, and to assist in the stocking of fish in streams.

Seven directors of the new club will be chosen at the meeting, according to the tentative program adopted. Four to be from Stanislaus County and three from Tuolumne.

Kadota Figs Make Excellent Showing Near Terra Bella

TERRA BELLA (Tulare Co.), Nov. 27.—N. E. Beckwith, who is the Beckwith Company, growers, preservers and shippers of Kadota figs, at Reedley, was inspecting section stands in the Terra Bella area, where Beckwith reports the prospect for the Kadota industry at this place is excellent, the growth of the trees here during the last two seasons having been far above the average.

The Reeves Brothers, who planted an orchard last year one-fourth mile north of Terra Bella, have been shipping figs this season.

Henry Carstensen, Overseas Veteran, Dies From Wound

NEWMAN (Stanislaus Co.), Nov. 27.—Henry Carstensen, 35, overseas veteran, brigadier of slightly more than a year and a poultry rancher of Manteca, was shot Saturday at 8 A. M. He died at 2:35 P. M., a half hour after the arrival of Dr. H. V. Armstrong of this city.

The tragedy occurred in the Coast Range Mountains, thirty miles west of here.

Carstensen was shot through the left leg two inches above the knee. The fatal shot was fired from a 30-30 rifle in the hand of Claus Kelting. The two men were hunting.

Carstensen was a native of the county whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. Carstensen of Manteca. He was proving up on a tract of government grazing land in the mountains near the Orin Priada Ranch, where the accident occurred. Kelting is a woodcutter.

All of the cars, with the exception of the stage were badly damaged.

TWO INJURED IN AUTO CRASH NEAR MERCED

Stage Passengers Hurt When Car Hits Them On Highway

MERCED (Merced Co.), Nov. 27.—James Bassett, of Calaveras, is suffering from a broken leg in the Merced Hospital, and Miss Jean Cox, who has been visiting for several days in Fresno, is suffering from possible fractured skull as the result of an accident on the highway three miles south of here last night.

Miss Cox was on her way to Alameda to visit the mother of James Murphy, who is employed by the California Optical Company in Fresno.

According to Deputy Sheriff Merrill Morse, who investigated the accident, the car, a 1922 Buick, was carrying four passengers, and was traveling on the northbound stage, who had got out of the stage to investigate a wreck that happened when S. S. Haber of Taft struck a car which was driven by S. Y. Crawford, without lights, and had stopped on the road.

While the passengers of the northbound stage, which had stopped, were looking over the wreckage, a car driven by Jack Allen of Madera crashed into the stage, and the other two cars, and injured the two persons who were viewing the wreck.

All of the cars, with the exception of the stage were badly damaged.

MAN BURNS TO DEATH AS BED CATCHES AFIRE

Coalinga Tool Dresser Victim Of Blaze Started By Cigarette

COALINGA (Fresno Co.), Nov. 27.—Martin Tyler burned to death Saturday night when a bed on which he was asleep caught fire, supposedly from a cigarette. The house in which the fire occurred was owned by M. J. Driskill, and has been vacant for several months, except for one room, which was occupied by William Kleinberg.

The fire loss was approximately $500, and was covered by insurance.

Was Seeking Rest

Tyler came to the house last night about 6 o'clock, and after talking to Kleinberg for a few minutes, requested permission to rest on the bed for a short time, saying that he was tired. Kleinberg left him lying on the bed, and went to town.

It is presumed that Tyler lit a cigarette and then dozed off to sleep. The mattress evidently caught fire and Tyler probably was overcome by the smoke and did not awaken, as he was found lying flat on his back, with no sign of a struggle.

Native Of Pennsylvania

Tyler was born in Smithport, Pa., and was about 55 years of age. He came to Coalinga sixteen years ago, and has been employed here at various times as a tool dresser and drifter. He had returned to Coalinga two months ago from India, where he had been drilling for the past three years.

Nothing is known here of his relatives, although it is thought that he has a cousin in Smithport, Pa. The body is being held here pending instructions.

A coroner's jury held an inquest yesterday afternoon and returned a verdict of accidental death.

MAN BURNS TO DEATH AS BED CATCHES AFIRE

Coalinga Tool Dresser Victim Of Blaze Started By Cigarette

COALINGA (Fresno Co.), Nov. 27.—Martin Tyler burned to death Saturday night when a bed on which he was asleep caught fire, supposedly from a cigarette. The house in which the fire occurred was owned by M. J. Driskill, and has been vacant for several months, except for one room, which was occupied by William Kleinberg.

The fire loss was approximately $500, and was covered by insurance.

Was Seeking Rest

Tyler came to the house last night about 6 o'clock, and after talking to Kleinberg for a few minutes, requested permission to rest on the bed for a short time, saying that he was tired. Kleinberg left him lying on the bed, and went to town.

It is presumed that Tyler lit a cigarette and then dozed off to sleep. The mattress evidently caught fire and Tyler probably was overcome by the smoke and did not awaken, as he was found lying flat on his back, with no sign of a struggle.

Selma Eleven Wins Great Battle From Visalia Legion Team

Buck Bailey Plays Whale Of A Game For Victors. Long Pass Gives Peach Center Edge In Third Period; 4,000 See Contest

VISALIA (Tulare Co.), Nov. 27.—A twenty-five yard forward pass from big Buck Bailey to Gordon completed on Visalia's one yard line and carried across by the husky Selma center yesterday gave to the "Home of the Peach" American Legion Football Eleven a victory over the Visalia Legionnaires 13 to 7 in the hardest and most smashing football game played on the Visalia field in many years. It was a remarkable criss cross pass, one of three which Selma successfully completed and it came in the first part of the third period, after both teams had scored one touchdown and converted.

Visalia's efforts to retrieve with passes failed and the ball for the remainder of the game stayed fairly close to the center of the field.

Visalia, going into the game without Coach Eells, Brown, Griggs or Roberts played a consistent game and held better even than they expected in the circumstances. Selma's victory, however, may well be written in three syllables, Buck Bailey, whose terrific line smashes as full back tore repeated holes through the Visalia line for gains of anywhere from one to ten yards at a blow.

A play by the stars of the game witnessed by nearly four thousand people, would find the name of Bailey and H. Peterson appearing so frequently as to indicate that they played alone. Such, however, was not the case for their line was much better than that of Visalia and held both on offensive and defensive work.

Peaches Score First
Selma scored first in the first quarter. Making their downs three successive times and then recovering a Visalia kick on Visalia's 20 yard line Peterson and Bailey moved forward through the line in jobs of size, two and three yard dailies carried the oval across in the first ten minutes of the play, H. Peterson converting.

In the next period Visalia took the ball on a kick on Visalia's 40 yard line and after trying passes and a few line plunges with only minor success, "Pet" Lucas, playing quarter, sneaked through the whole Selma team for 50 yards, stumbling, being tackled only once, and continuing to go down until he ran into Gordon on Selma's 15 yard line.

Lucas Goes Over
Assisted by a penalty of five yards the Visalia team literally played Selma off their feet in the next three downs and Lucas carried the ball across, Chrisman converting. The half closed 7 to 7.

In the second half Visalia tightened up and while the Selma back field was able to make down several times the contest developed into a nip and tuck struggle with Visalia showing an fifty percent better game. Then Selma suddenly developed a stone wall and held Visalia on a last down with only one foot to go and Peterson went forward three yards to the Visalia 25 yard line.

Foiled All Visalians
One pass failed but Bailey negotiated another immediately, a fake end run criss cross pass which baffled the home guards. Gordon, behind every Visalia player accepted it beautifully and stood within three feet of the goal line merely walking across. The convert was blocked and the score stood 13 to 7.

Selma got within striking distance of the goal no more and for that matter neither did Visalia attack. "Dutch" Leonard, who had gone in the meantime, opened an aerial attack on a long chance that some one might break loose. Several times it looked promising

Orosi Girls Defeat Visalia Hoop Teams
(By the Valley Press)
VISALIA (Tulare Co.), Nov. 27.—The Orosi High School girls basketball team defeated Visalia Saturday on the local courts, taking the unlimited contest by a score of 21 to 13 and the limited contest 15 to 12. The latter contest was a tie game requiring five minutes additional play to determine the winner. It was the last game of the season for the Visalia team.

Chet Thomas Signs Contract To Play With Oakland Club
After fourteen years Chet Thomas, who received the surnames of "Dutch" Leonard for the Fresno Tigers last season and was a material aid in giving this city its great brand of baseball, is going back to his first love—the Oakland club in the Pacific Coast League.

Chet coyly admitted this morning that he expected to be the best catcher in the business during 1923 and that the Oakland club had been the fortunate one. Thomas came to terms several days ago when the Oakland club sent a representative here. Thomas broke into the game back in 1909 with Oakland and was sold the following season to the Boston Red Sox. He was returned to Sacramento for a short time in 1911 but was recalled in mid-season by Boston. He was with the Red Sox during the next two seasons when the Boston American League club reached the heights of its glory.

In the winter of 1911 he was with the Athletics. In June, 1913 he went to Cleveland where he remained during 1913, '20, and '21. Thomas has a lot of baseball left in the old system. He is as frisky as a colt on the ball lot and will be a mighty big help to Oakland in developing young pitchers.
